

Reflection

What's the tallest structure you could build? How many pieces did it take?

What other shapes can be used to build with? Illustrate in the space above and then build your design

How does the new design compare to the previous build?

How different was your second build with the inclusion of new elements?